NOTE: Please follow the guidelines listed below to avoid any rejections:

- You must submit a copy of your registration certificate (RC) and license as part of your first claim. If these were submitted earlier anytime post April 1, 2018 and there has been no change in your vehicle details since then, the same RC and license will be considered to approve your bills. If not, you will have to submit the RC license now. This is not applicable to professionals on car lease.
- Credit card charge slips are not valid proofs.
- The eligibility amount will be calculated considering the start date as the date on which the vehicle information was updated on HR Workways.

- The vehicle must be registered in your name and used by you to commute to the office.
- If claiming for multiple self-owned vehicles, ensure you added the vehicle details appropriately on the 'Vehicle information' page effective the start date of using the vehicle.
- The amount approved will be reduced from your 'taxable special allowance' amount while calculating the tax liability.
- Professional availing firm provided transport benefit cannot claim these expenses.
- All the original bills only must be scanned and uploaded.
